

Join us on Indian Creek Nature Center's beautiful campus for exciting workshops led by teacher-naturalists and tailored toward the advancement requirements for Tiger, Wolf, Bear, and Webelos Cubs.

Inside this brochure, you will find descriptions for all of the Cub Scouts workshops offered throughout the 2019-20 school year. Each workshop fulfills part or all of the requirements for either a Required or Elective Adventure.

Please refer to your Cub Scout handbook for complete information on the requirements for each adventure. All workshops are $10 per scout, except for Wolf Day, which is $25 per scout. Registration information, our cancellation and refund policy, and complete rules are available at: indiancreeknaturecenter.org/scouts. Or, you can call (319) 362-0664 for assistance.

Lion Workshop

Mountain Lion

Saturday, November 16, 2019

12:30-2:00 PM

Find out what you can do to prepare and stay safe while hiking and exploring outside. Then put your new skills to use! Hike and explore our trails with a naturalist. Don't forget to pack your curiosity and sense of adventure. Be prepared for an afternoon of fun!

Tiger Workshops

My Tiger Jungle/Tigers in the Wild

Saturday, October 12, 2019

12:30-2:30 PM

Complete two required adventures in one workshop! Talk about leave no trace, the outdoor code; the Cub Scout six essentials. Take a hike around the Nature Center — experience the sights and sounds, look for plants and animals, learn about birds and go on a one foot hike with a magnifying glass.

The Sky is the Limit

Friday, December 13, 2019

6:30-8:00 PM

Use binoculars and telescopes, talk about constellations, how to use star charts and more. Create your own constellation and give it a name! (You will be responsible for Requirement #3).

Wolf Workshop

Wolf Day: Call of the Wild, Paws on the Path, Finding Your Way, and Howling at the Moon
Saturday, November 2, 2019

9:30 AM-3:30 PM (Includes one-hour lunch on your own.)

We'll have great fun making our way through requirements for all four adventures! Learn about animals, bugs and birds. Pack items you need for camping and hiking. Gather around the campfire and create your own exciting campfire skit! End the afternoon with your pack on a one-mile hike and put your compass skills to the test.

Bear Workshop

Fur, Feathers and Ferns

Saturday, September 14, 2019

12:30-2:30 PM

Go for a hike — rain or shine — and look for animals, birds and plants on this Required Adventure. Look for signs of wildlife outside. Do you know who's endangered and why? Investigate the species that no longer live here and have a closer look at plants with a magnifying glass.

Webelos Workshops

Into the Wild

Saturday, October 26, 2019

12:30-2:30 PM

Learn about birds and flyways, and practice your bird watching skills. Build a terrarium and learn how to take care of it. Play the food chain game and think about different roles that humans play. Explore a wetland and talk about the importance of aquatic ecosystems. (Note: we will not complete every requirement for this adventure.)

Into the Woods

Saturday, October 26, 2019

9:30-11:30 AM

Take this workshop with Into the Wild, or on its own. Trees are everywhere! What kind are they? Learn how trees work, which trees you're likely to find in your backyard, how we use trees and more.

Earth Rocks!

Saturday, January 4, 2020

9:30-11:30 AM

Find out why geology is important to you! We'll identify rocks, test minerals and learn about Moh's hardness scale and Iowa's geological past. You'll even take home a little souvenir.

Castaway/Getaway

Saturday, January 4, 2020

1:00-3:00 PM

Have you ever wondered what supplies you would need if you were stranded on a desert island? Learn which tools and skills would come in handy in an outdoor emergency. Light a fire, make a shelter, learn about outdoor survival kits and cook a snack over a campfire.

Boy Scouts Merit Badge Day

April 18, 2020

Work with a team of experts in a variety of badge areas. Sign up for a morning or afternoon session, or stay for the full day to work on two different badges. Check the website for 2020 workshop session options, schedule and registration information.
